

Articles of Association

Preamble

Mission statement of the DECT Forum

The Mission of the DECT Forum is to support a collaborative environment of the DECT industry and drive programs to develop and improve DECT wireless technology in order to exceed wireless communications expectations and meet the needs of a technology-shifting world.

To support the business and revenues of its Members, the DECT Forum initiates and drives necessary activities to ensure a growth of the DECT market, to enhance the technology, related products and applications and to support and coordinate marketing activities of its Members. In conjunction herewith the DECT Forum undertakes appropriate measures to assure the benefits of DECT Forum Membership towards non-members.

To achieve this, the DECT Forum:

- Campaigns for the DECT technology in the best possible way with the funds that are available;
- Protects and expands the allocation of DECT frequencies worldwide;
- Encourages its members to take part in the enhancement of the DECT standards and applications through active participation in the standardization bodies and interoperability and certification programs.
- Stimulates and inspires the DECT Forum members to utilize the full frequency spectrum with applications and products;
- Provides comprehensive information and marketing support for its Members;

As a result of these activities the following will apply:

- Consumers will gain confidence in a mature and reliable technology that complies with customer needs and increases personal satisfaction;
- Members will benefit from a collaborative Industry initiative that widely promotes, enhances, and secures the DECT technology and that supports their business and revenues.

2. Expressions referring to writing shall, unless otherwise specified, be construed as including references to printing (fax, telex, photocopy) and any other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.
3. Unless otherwise specified, words or expressions contained in these Articles shall bear the same meaning as in the Act in force at the date at which these Articles become binding on the Association.

Article 3. Objectives

1. The Association is non-profit oriented and shall have as its objective the support of the business and revenues of its Members through promotion and evolution of DECT as the worldwide preferred wireless technology standard.
2. This objective shall be accomplished through:
 - a. promoting and ensuring awareness of the DECT advantages and benefits to users, operators, manufacturers and regulators;
 - b. convincing the spectrum regulators to grant spectrum for the DECT standard and technology;
 - c. acting towards European and non-European institutions to support and enhance the DECT standard and technology internationally;
 - d. organizing and supporting local DECT related activities on a worldwide basis;
 - e. managing technical standards in full collaboration with existing institutions;
 - f. encouraging its members to take part in the enhancement of the DECT standards and applications through active participation in the standardization bodies and interoperability and certification programs;
 - g. stimulating and inspiring the DECT Forum members to utilize the full frequency spectrum with applications and products;

- h. securing DECT long term evolution;
 - i. providing comprehensive information and marketing support for its Members;
 - j. undertaking appropriate measures to assure the benefits of DECT Forum Membership towards non-members.
3. All Objectives of the DECT Forum and its operations shall be built on an open and non-discriminatory basis.

Article 4. Funds

1. The funds of the Association shall consist of the Annual Membership Fees, grants, gifts and other benefits.
2. Further income may be derived from DECT Forum operations in accordance with the objectives of the Association.
3. The income and property of the Association, whensoever derived, shall be applied solely for the promotion of the objectives of the Association as set forth in these Articles and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit, to the Members, provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment, in good faith, of reasonable and proper remuneration to any officer or servant of the Association, or to any Member.

Chapter II

Membership and Partnership

Article 5. Membership Categories

The Association shall have the following categories of Members:

- (i) Full Members
- (ii) Associated Members.

Article 6a. Admittance to Membership

Full Member

1. Every legal entity supporting DECT can, subject to admittance pursuant to para 2 of this Article 6a, become a Full Member of the Association, provided, however, an Affiliate of legal entity is not already a Member at the time of application.
2. Applications for full membership shall be submitted in writing to the Permanent Secretariat who, upon verifying their completeness, shall forward such applications to the DECT Forum Board. The DECT Forum Board shall, upon receipt of a certificate of acceptance of the Articles and such other documents as it may reasonably require, approve or dismiss the application. Admission as a Full Member shall become effective only upon receipt by the Association of one Annual Membership Fee from the applicant.

Associated Member

3. Every legal entity supporting DECT can, subject to admittance pursuant to para 4 of this Article 6a, become an Associated Member of the Association, provided, an Affiliate of legal entity is not already a Member at the time of application.
4. Applications for associated membership shall be submitted in writing to the Permanent Secretariat who, upon verifying their completeness, shall forward such applications to the DECT Forum Board. The DECT Forum Board shall, upon receipt of a certificate of acceptance of the Articles and such other documents as it may reasonably require, approve or dismiss the application. Admission as a Associated Member shall become effective only upon receipt by the Association of one Annual Membership Fee from the applicant.
5. Associated Members shall not have the right to attend Working Group or Local DECT Forum meetings without having been invited to do so by the DECT Forum Board.

Article 6b. Termination of Membership

General

1. The membership terminates in the event of:
 - a. resignation of the Member;
 - b. expulsion by the DECT Forum Board.
2. In case of non-payment of the Annual Membership Fee by a Full or Associated Member, the Association's remedy shall be expulsion by the DECT Forum Board.
3. In the event of termination of membership for whatever reason:
 - a. a Member shall be obligated to pay to the Association any financial contribution which the Member was obligated to pay before the membership was terminated; and
 - b. a Member shall not be entitled to damages in respect of any loss or damage caused to it by such termination.

Resignation

- 4.. a. Resignation of a Member may only take place at the end of a financial year (as defined in Article 20) and with due observance of a term of notice of 60 days.
 - b. In case of resignation contrary to the preceding paragraph, the membership will end at the earliest date allowed following the day on which notice was given.
 - c. A Member may not, by resigning from its membership, withdraw itself from a resolution whereby rights and obligations of a financial nature of the Members are changed.

Expulsion

5. a. Expulsion may only be pronounced if a Member acts contrary to the Articles, or any regulations or resolutions of the Association, or injures the Association in an unreasonable manner.
- b. The Member to be expelled shall have the right to defend its position at (or write to the Permanent Secretariat prior to) the DECT Forum Board meeting at which an expulsion proposal is tabled. At least 30 days' prior written notice of such meeting, with proof of posting and receipt, shall be given by the Permanent Secretariat to such Member. The written notice shall include a statement of the reasons given for the expulsion proposal.
- c. Should the Member remedy the purported breach of the Articles, the regulations or resolutions of the Association or the injury caused to the Association within the 30 day period pursuant to the preceding paragraph, such Member shall not be expelled unless the Association cannot reasonably be expected to let the membership continue.
- d. A resolution by the DECT Forum Board to expel a Member may be taken with a two third majority of the Board members present. Any member of the DECT Forum Board being an employee of such Member shall not have the right to vote upon the proposed expulsion. The Member shall be notified of the decision by registered mail.
- e. The date on which membership ends shall be determined by the DECT Forum Board.

Suspension

6. a. If a member fails to pay its Annual Membership Fee in full by the due date, the DECT Forum Board may, with 30 (thirty) days' prior written notice, suspend that Member from the benefits of Membership until the Annual Membership Fee is paid in full. Benefits of Membership from which a suspended Member is precluded, are:
 - i. The right to attend and to vote at the General Assembly and other meetings of the Association (in which such suspended Member shall not be counted for the purpose of a quorum);
 - ii. The right to be invited or to attend Working Groups and Local DECT Forum meetings.
 - iii. All other membership activities and access to the Members-only activities and information of the Association.
- b. A resolution by the DECT Forum Board to suspend a Member may be taken with an ordinary majority of the Board members present. Any member of the DECT Forum Board being an employee of such Member shall not have the right to vote upon the proposed suspension. The Member shall be notified of the decision by registered mail.
- c. Suspension shall not absolve the Member's liability to pay the Annual Membership Fee. Suspension shall be terminated upon receipt by the Association of the full amount due in respect of the Annual Membership Fee outstanding.

Article 7. Partner and Partnership regulations

1. The Association may hold collaborative and informative relationships to other organizations which are not members of the Association but which have common objectives or reciprocal interests with the Association.

2. The DECT Forum's participation in such collaborative and informative relationships shall be governed by agreement between the DECT Forum and the partner organization.

Chapter III Organization

Article 8. Basic Organization

The governing bodies of the Association are:

- A. General Assembly;
- B. DECT Forum Board;

3. The auditor shall audit the balance sheet and the statement of income and expenditure of the Association and produce a written report on its audit examination to the DECT Forum Board.

Chapter V

General Provisions

Article 26. Trade Marks and Trade Names

1. The DECT Forum owns and will own Trade Marks which it may license to Members and Non-members for use in accordance with the regulations on each Trade

Mark. The regulations on Trade Marks, and any modifications thereto, as adopted in accordance with Article 31, shall be binding upon all Members.

Each Full Member, during the effectiveness of its membership, enjoys a revocable non-exclusive license to use the "DECT Forum" logo in accordance with said regulations.

2. DECT Forum members shall not use the Trade Marks in any false or misleading way or on any goods or services that do not comply with the appropriate regulations on the corresponding trademark.
3. DECT Forum members shall not use any trademark, service mark, logo, mark or symbol in any way that creates or could create a likelihood of confusion with, dilute the distinctiveness of, tarnish, or otherwise harm all or any DECT Forum Trade Marks.
4. Except as otherwise provided for in these Articles, nothing within these Articles shall confer on the Association or any Member the right to use any other Member's trademark, tradename or other designation without such other Member's prior written approval.
5. The Association shall have the right to include each Member's name in a Members' list to be set up by the Permanent Secretariat, which list may be used by the Association for promotion, and other purposes within the scope of the objectives of the Association, and may be publicly distributed by any Member.

Article 27. Publicity and Confidentiality

1. No Member shall make any statement to the general public or the media pertaining to the Association or the work performed thereunder unless such statement has been approved by the DECT Forum Board.
2. Any confidential information provided by a Member to the Association and/or other Members within the context of the Association shall be kept strictly confidential and shall be used for the sole purpose of, and only to the extent necessary for, participating in the Association, its Working Groups or Local DECT Forum.

Article 28. Notices

1. A notice pursuant to the Articles shall be in writing and may be given by the Association to any Member either personally or by sending it by post, by facsimile or by electronic mail to the Member's registered address or principal place of business as last notified to the Permanent Secretariat, unless otherwise provided by these Articles. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected in the case of a notice of a meeting at the expiration of 96 hours after the letter containing the same is posted and in any other case at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post. Where notice is served by facsimile or by electronic mail it shall be deemed to have been received on the day following the day on which it was transmitted.
2. Notice of every General Assembly shall be given in any manner herein before authorized to:
 - a. every Member; and

- b. the members of the DECT Forum Board.

No other person shall be entitled as of right to receive notices of General Assemblies.

Article 29. Amendment of the Articles of Association

1. The Articles may be amended only by a resolution of the General Assembly which has been convened with the statement that an amendment of the Articles will be proposed in that meeting. Such resolution may not be taken by way of a written procedure.
2. Those who have convened the General Assembly to discuss a motion to amend the Articles shall ensure that, at least 20 days before the meeting, a copy of such motion containing the verbatim text of the proposed amendment has been received by all Members and the Permanent Secretariat for inspection by the Members until the end of the day immediately preceding the day on which the meeting is held.
3. An amendment of the Articles shall become effective upon a resolution adopted in accordance with the previous para 1 and 3.

Article 30. Dissolution

1. The Association may be dissolved by a resolution of the General Assembly. The provisions of the para 1, 2 and 3 of Article 29 shall apply accordingly.
2. The balance remaining after liquidation shall be divided among those who were Members at the time when the resolution to dissolve was adopted. Each of them shall receive an share related to the fee for the respective Member category. However, the resolution to dissolve may also specify another destination for the balance.

Article 31. Regulations

1. The DECT Forum board may adopt regulations.
2. The regulations shall not be contrary to the Articles. In case of a conflict these Articles shall prevail.

Article 32. Language

English shall be the working language of the Association.

Article 33. Governing Law – Disputes

1. The Articles and all regulations promulgated thereunder shall be governed by the substantive laws of Switzerland.
2. The courts in Berne have exclusive jurisdiction, subject to the provisions of paragraph 3.
3. Any and all disputes between the Association and its Members or among the Members arising out of, or in connection with, the Articles or any regulations promulgated thereunder, which cannot be resolved by friendly settlement, shall be settled in accordance with the Rules of the International Chamber of Commerce by three arbitrators. The place of arbitration shall be Berne. The arbitral proceedings shall be conducted in the English language. The Association reserves the right to apply for or to obtain relief from an ordinary court in an urgent matter or to protect its patents, trademarks, designs or copyrights or where there is no dispute (such as an undefended claim).

4. The decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be final and binding and the parties waive all challenge of the award in accordance with Article 192 of the Swiss Private International Law Statute.
